BWF

Badminton World Federation

Approved by BWF
for international level play

In 1908, Senoh was born in Japan as sports equipment manufacture. Since then, our equipment has been improved by going through the severe product selection criteria in Japanese market, and through the experience providing the best quality products and services, Senoh has received the approvals from several international federations such as FIVB, FIBA, and FIG, as equipment with global standard.

In 2017, our badminton net posts and net are newly approved by BWF, Badminton World Federation, as the equipment for international level play.

Senoh wishes to build the bright future through sports and will continue to contribute to further sports evolution by offering safe, superior products, and the sustainable development of technical standards.
